

First drug court launched in Miami, FL

1993

NADCP founded

"The National Association of Drug Court Professionals (NADCP) was formed today for the purpose of promoting and advocating for treatment-based drug courts... to place drug offenders into treatment and rehabilitation programs as an alternative to incarceration."

- Judge William G. Schma, Founding NADCP board member,

1999

May is designated as National Drug Court Month.

2001

847 treatment courts in operation.

Congress approves $42.9 million for treatment courts.

2007

First veterans treatment court opens in Buffalo, NY.

NADCP launches the National Center for DWI Courts.

The number of people served by treatment courts exceeds 500,000.

2013

The number of people served by treatment courts exceeds 1 million

NADCP publishes the first volume of the groundbreaking Adult Drug Court Best Practice Standards.

NADCP rebrands as All Rise

"After nearly 30 years as the National Association of Drug Court Professionals, we have rebranded as All Rise. This new name better reflects the transformative work we have done together to help save more than 1.5 million lives and builds on the vision of reform upon which we were founded. What will never change is our abiding commitment to treatment courts and to those who work in them. Together, we will continue our relentless pursuit of a justice system where success is measured by the number of lives saved, families reunited, and communities made safer."

- Carson Fox, CEO, All Rise

20 drug courts in operation

U.S. Department of Justice establishes federal drug court grant program

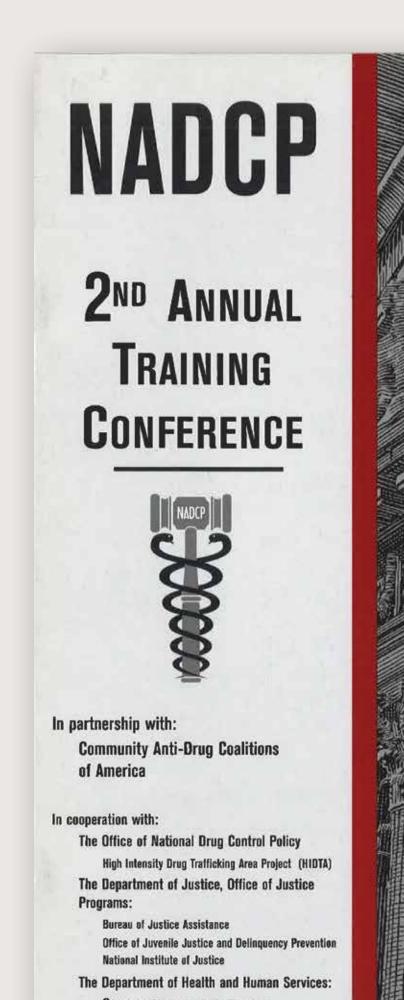

NADCP holds its first national drug court conference in Las Vegas, NV

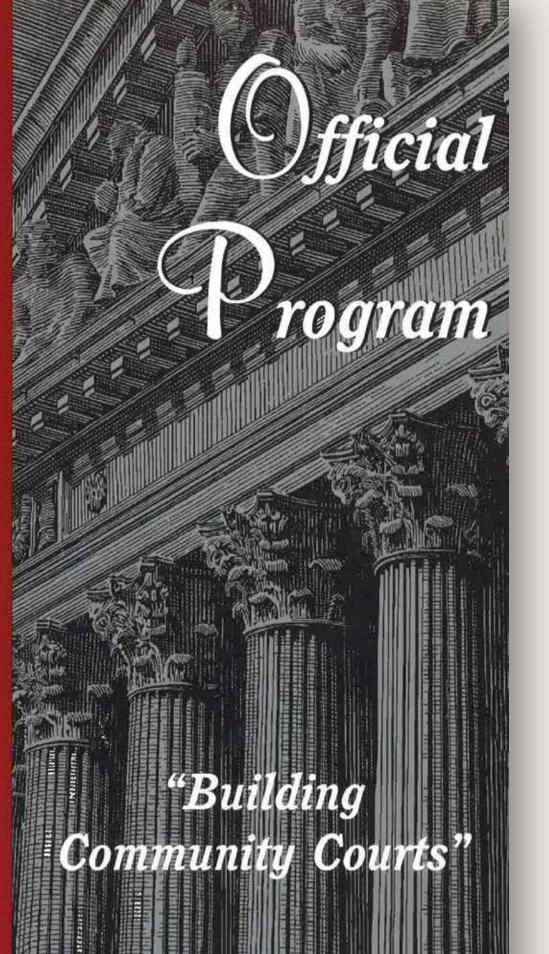

First DWI court opens in Doña Ana, NM

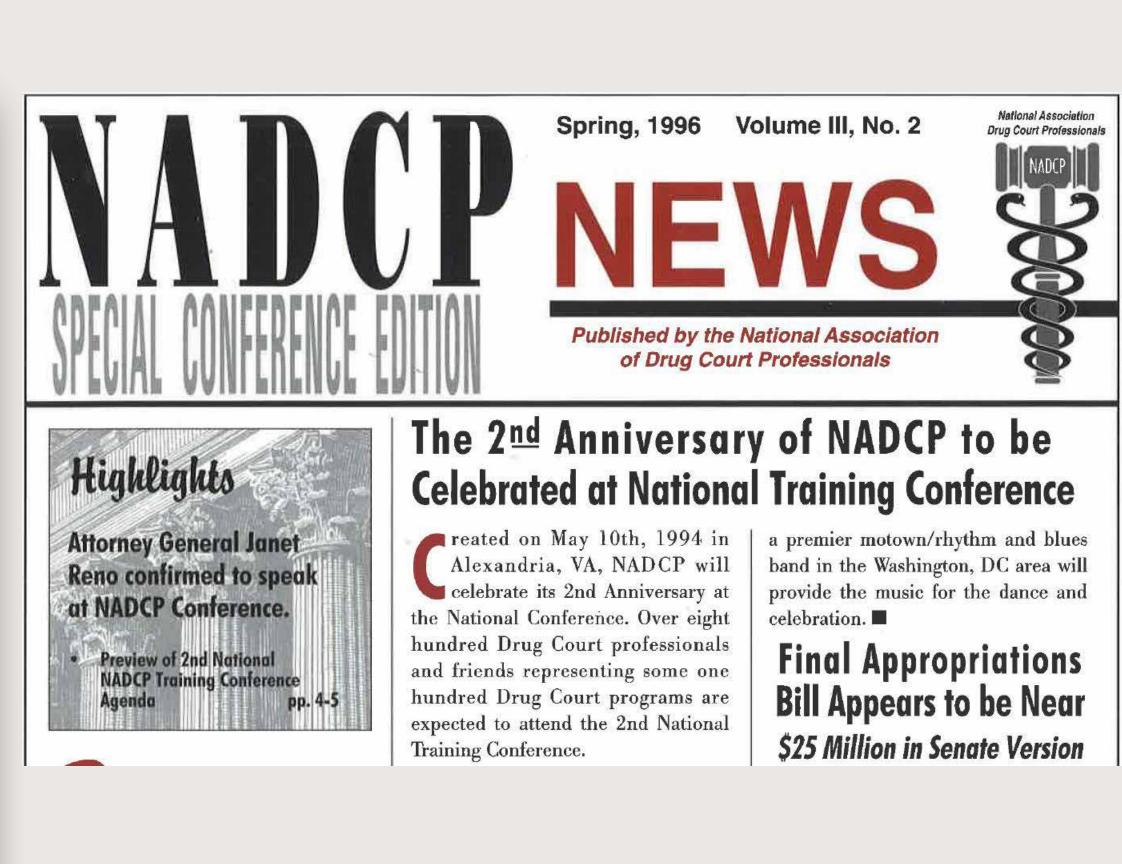

First juvenile drug court opens in Visalia, CA

First family treatment court opens in Reno, NV

1995

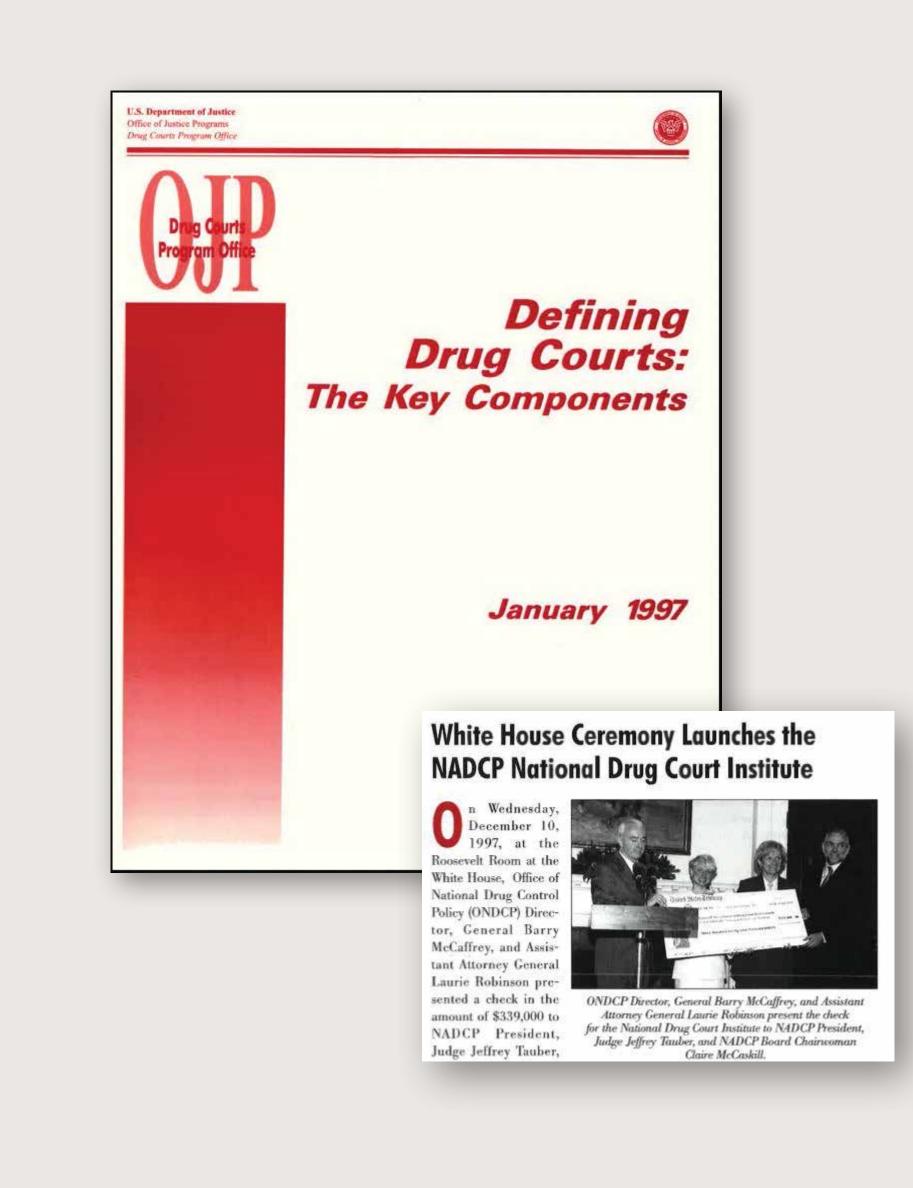

NADCP launches the National Drug Court Institute.

First tribal healing to wellness court opens in Fort Hall, ID

NADCP publishes Defining Drug Courts: The Key Components.

2005

The National Institute of Justice reports that 75% of drug court graduates remain arrest-free for at least two years following the program.

1,756 treatment courts in operation.

250,000 publications disseminated by NADCP.

500,000 publications disseminated by NADCP.

NADCP launches the All Rise campaign.

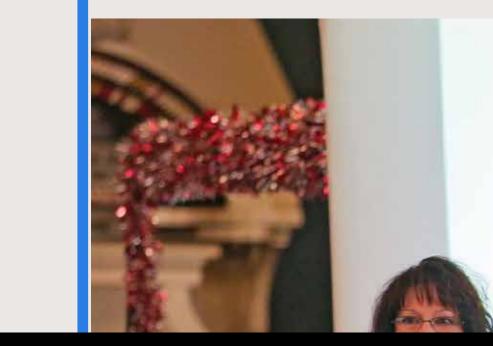

NADCP launches Justice For Vets.

2009

NADCP's All Rise America tour visits 30 treatment courts in 30 days during National Drug Court Month.

The most comprehensive study on drug courts to date concludes: drug courts reduce drug use and crime, save money, and improve employment, education, financial stability and family reunification.

100,000 practitioners trained by NADCP

25th anniversary of treatment courts. Over 3,000 treatment courts in operation.

NADCP publishes Volume 2 of the Adult Drug Court Best Practice Standards.

The number of 300,000

by NADCP

people served by treatment courts

exceeds 1.5 million.

practitioners trained conference is considered the world's largest on addiction,

mental health and justice reform

winner Octavia Spencer helps launch NADCP's Advancing Justice initiative.

Academy-Award

disseminated by

NADCP

30th anniversary of 4,000 treatment courts in treatment courts operation. honored at RISE19

Congress approves a record in Washington, DC. $187 million in federal funding Over a million for treatment courts. publications

500,000 practitioners trained by NADCP

2021

Over 7,500 practitioners attend RISE22.

