Every Court Is a Treatment Court

All Rise's Center for Advancing Justice can help strengthen your court responses to individuals with substance use and mental health disorders. We understand the challenges. We know what works. And we have a proven record of building effective solutions.

We Provide Whole-System Solutions

All Rise's Center for Advancing Justice helps courts build the capacity to rapidly screen, assess, and refer individuals with substance use and mental health disorders to appropriate, evidence-based interventions. By providing hands-on training and targeted technical assistance to courts and their community-based partners, we can help you make every court a treatment court.

For a fixed rate, experts from the Center for Advancing Justice will help you:

- Assess data on existing practices, readiness for change, and the current continuum of services; then, we'll collaborate on an action plan to bring evidence-based practices to every court.
- Implement a range of evidence-based practices throughout the court system, creating new policies and procedures, delivering ongoing training, obtaining commitments from key stakeholders, and/or securing funding.
- Review operational data to ensure that new practices are being implemented as intended and develop sustainability plans that ensure institutional uptake and continuous improvement.
